TODD A. MORROW, MD, FACS

For seventeen years, Dr. Todd Morrow has delivered the highest quality and most personalized care for one part of the body—the face. His comprehensive, individualized treatment delivers outstanding results and ensures the health, safety, and well-being of his patients. Board certified in facial plastic and reconstructive surgery, and otolaryngology, Dr. Morrow uses the latest techniques for facial rejuvenation. He performs cosmetic nasal and ear surgery, laser and endoscopic procedures, and facial reconstruction.

"It's a privilege when patients place their trust in my hands," says Dr. Morrow. "I'm grateful to have the opportunity to positively change so many lives."
